K9 Crew Trick Dog Show: from shelters to stardom, rescue dogs wows audiences.

Tony Hoard, AKA "The Dog Guy", combines energetic, innovative and cutting-edge presentations with the coolest collection of performing dogs in the entertainment industry. A Four Time World Champion Frisbee Dog handler and trainer, perform for Chicago Bears during half-time, Super Bowl XLVI, with the Indianapolis Symphony and as semifinalists on "America's Got Talent". They have also appeared on Animal Planet and Good Morning America.

The show includes "California Crush" the newest homeless to high flying member of the Crew, "Elektra", the show co-host and "Diva", "Sprocket", a flying disc fanatic, and "Z-Bug" don't blink - she's one of the fastest dogs in the Crew. The K9 Crew Trick Dog Show is a high energy family oriented show.

The Crew emphasizes on positive reinforcement & toy motivation training, Tony and his talented team of handlers spread the word of Pet adoption as most of the performing pets have been adopted or rescued from Shelters throughout the Country. The K9 Crew Trick Dog Show showcases ordinary dogs doing the extraordinary: jaw-dropping big air stunts, back flips, extreme high jumps, balancing acts and a dash of canine comedy, all as part of the K9 Crew Trick Dog Show.
